

2010 graduates of the Umodzi-Mbame center

Graduating children receive school bag, certificate and a handshake from the boNGO Managing Director and Traditional Authorities attending the function

Children and teachers perform in front of the parents

Headmaster of a local primary school admires the teaching and playing materials that were produced by the teachers of the Umodzi-Mbame Childcare Center

Parents and other visitors are watching a lesson on numbers

Children showing how they learned to write their names

Next school year starts on the 5th September !!!

